

YOUR ROLE IN PREVENTING HUMAN TRAFFICKING

KNOW THE INDICATORS

SOME INDICATORS OF SEX OR LABOR TRAFFICKING:

HOW TO SPOT A VICTIM

- » Seems disoriented, lacking sleep, and shows signs of abuse.
- » Has little or no luggage.
- » Wears the same clothes repeatedly.
- » Cannot speak freely and is never left alone.
- » Dressed inappropriately for weather or age.
- » Avoids eye contact and is fearful of authority.
- » Often seen with other young women and men exhibiting signs of abuse.
- » Unable to provide identity documents.
- » Malnourished, injuries at different stages of healing, and/or lack of medical care.

HOW TO SPOT A TRAFFICKER

- » Pays for the room in cash one day at a time.
- » Controls money or identification of victim.
- » Controls victim's ability to move and speak freely.
- » Insists on little or no housekeeping.
- » Frequently requests towels and sheets.
- » Escorts various men (or women) into hotel room; waits and watches door.
- » Seen with many young persons or children exhibiting signs of trafficking.
- » Requests isolated, private rooms, close to exits.
- » Alcohol is ordered for guests who appear to be underage.
- » Continually makes and receives cell phone calls.
- » Unusual number of cell phones/smartphones, cameras, laptops, used gift cards and credit card readers.
- » Avoids hotel cameras and hides under hats & sunglasses.

LET'S STOP MODERN SLAVERY.

A close-up photograph of a person's eye, showing a blue iris and dark eyelashes, looking directly at the camera. The image is partially obscured by the text overlay.

SEE the SIGNS

REPORT IT IF YOU SEE OR SUSPECT ANYTHING

SOME INDICATORS OF SEX OR LABOR TRAFFICKING

HOW TO SPOT A VICTIM

- » Seems disoriented, lacking sleep, and shows signs of abuse.
- » Has little or no luggage.
- » Wears the same clothes repeatedly.
- » Cannot speak freely and is never left alone.
- » Dressed inappropriately for weather or age.
- » Avoids eye contact and is fearful of authority.
- » Often seen with other young women and men exhibiting signs of abuse.
- » Unable to provide identity documents.
- » Malnourished, injuries at different stages of healing, and/or lack of medical care.

HOW TO SPOT A TRAFFICKER

- » Pays for the room in cash one day at a time.
- » Controls money or identification of victim.
- » Controls victim's ability to move and speak freely.
- » Insists on little or no housekeeping.
- » Frequently requests towels and sheets.
- » Escorts various men (or women) into hotel room; waits and watches door.
- » Seen with many young persons or children exhibiting signs of trafficking.
- » Requests isolated, private rooms, close to exits.
- » Alcohol is ordered for guests who appear to be underage.
- » Continually makes and receives cell phone calls.
- » Unusual number of cell phones/smartphones, cameras, laptops, used gift cards and credit card readers.
- » Avoids hotel cameras and hides under hats & sunglasses.

YOUR ROLE IN PREVENTING HUMAN TRAFFICKING:

KNOW THE INDICATORS

SOME INDICATORS OF SEX OR LABOR TRAFFICKING:

HOW TO SPOT A VICTIM

- » Seems disoriented, lacking sleep, and shows signs of abuse.
- » Has little or no luggage.
- » Wears the same clothes repeatedly.
- » Cannot speak freely and is never left alone.
- » Dressed inappropriately for weather or age.
- » Avoids eye contact and is fearful of authority.
- » Often seen with other young women and men exhibiting signs of abuse.
- » Unable to provide identity documents.
- » Malnourished, injuries at different stages of healing, and/or lack of medical care.

HOW TO SPOT A TRAFFICKER

- » Pays for the room in cash one day at a time.
- » Controls money or identification of victim.
- » Controls victim's ability to move and speak freely.
- » Insists on little or no housekeeping.
- » Frequently requests towels and sheets.
- » Escorts various men (or women) into hotel room; waits and watches door.
- » Seen with many young persons or children exhibiting signs of trafficking.
- » Requests isolated, private rooms, close to exits.
- » Alcohol is ordered for guests who appear to be underage.
- » Continually makes and receives cell phone calls.
- » Unusual number of cell phones/smartphones, cameras, laptops, used gift cards and credit card readers.
- » Avoids hotel cameras and hides under hats & sunglasses.

YOUR ROLE IN PREVENTING HUMAN TRAFFICKING: KNOW THE INDICATORS

SOME INDICATORS OF SEX OR LABOR TRAFFICKING

HOW TO SPOT A VICTIM

- Seems disoriented, lacking sleep, and shows signs of abuse.
- Has little or no luggage.
- Wears the same clothes repeatedly.
- Cannot speak freely and is never left alone.
- Dressed inappropriately for weather or age.
- Avoids eye contact and is fearful of authority.
- Often seen with other young women and men exhibiting signs of abuse.
- Unable to provide identity documents.
- Malnourished, injuries at different stages of healing, and/or lack of medical care.

HOW TO SPOT A TRAFFICKER

- Pays for the room in cash one day at a time.
- Controls money or identification of victim.
- Controls victim's ability to move and speak freely.
- Insists on little or no housekeeping.
- Frequently requests towels and sheets.
- Escorts various men (or women) into hotel room; waits and watches door.
- Seen with many young persons or children exhibiting signs of trafficking.
- Requests isolated, private rooms, close to exits.
- Alcohol is ordered for guests who appear to be underage.
- Continually makes and receives cell phone calls.
- Unusual number of cell phones/smartphones, cameras, laptops, used gift cards and credit card readers.
- Avoids hotel cameras and hides under hats & sunglasses.

NO ONE CAN DO EVERYTHING, BUT EVERYONE CAN DO SOMETHING

DON'T BE SILENT

SEE SOMETHING.
SAY SOMETHING.

Recognize the Signs of Human Trafficking and Report It

SOME INDICATORS OF SEX OR LABOR TRAFFICKING

HOW TO SPOT A VICTIM:

- › Seems disoriented, lacking sleep, and shows signs of abuse.
- › Has little or no luggage.
- › Wears the same clothes repeatedly.
- › Cannot speak freely and is never left alone.
- › Dressed inappropriately for weather or age.
- › Avoids eye contact and is fearful of authority.
- › Often seen with other young women and men exhibiting signs of abuse.
- › Unable to provide identity documents.
- › Malnourished, injuries at different stages of healing, and/or lack of medical care.

HOW TO SPOT A TRAFFICKER:

- › Pays for the room in cash one day at a time.
- › Controls money or identification of victim.
- › Controls victim's ability to move and speak freely.
- › Insists on little or no housekeeping.
- › Frequently requests towels and sheets.
- › Escorts various men (or women) into hotel room; waits and watches door.
- › Seen with many young persons or children exhibiting signs of trafficking.
- › Requests isolated, private rooms, close to exits.
- › Alcohol is ordered for guests who appear to be underage.
- › Continually makes and receives cell phone calls.
- › Unusual number of cell phones/smartphones, cameras, laptops, used gift cards and credit card readers.
- › Avoids hotel cameras and hides under hats & sunglasses.

